

KWC
Medi-10 60° Tap Spout

AT07-103

Medi-10 60° Tap Spout

This range of modern, minimalistic and highly practical removable spouts are designed for the most demanding healthcare environments. The spout quickly and easily removes for servicing, ensuring minimal disruption. With a 316 Stainless Steel solid body, smooth flow channels and easy to clean shape, the KWC DVS EZ Spout maintains high levels of hygiene to reduce cross contamination.

Technical data

Type of tap
Material
Surface finish
Gross weight (incl. spigot)
Operation type
Type of mounting
Type of mixing
Spout projection
Water connection
Other features

The twist and lock mechanism ensures quick and easy removal of all KWC DVS EZ Spouts from the mounting spigot for efficient, disruption-free cleaning and maintenance. Features - Slim, minimalistic, modern appearance - Versions available with or without outlet - Easily removable spout body for sterilising - 316 Stainless Steel body and water way - Sensors include the fully programmable sensor (required separately)

Removable spout
316 stainless steel
Brushed
0.50kg (spigot 0.15kg / spout 0.35kg)
Separate sensor
Wall mounted spigot
Additional TMV required
200mm
½" BSP or 15mm compression
Anti-vandal locking grub screw